

Sn1per Community Edition End User License Agreement (EULA)

Sn1perSecurity LLC grants you the right to download, use, and distribute in part or in whole Sn1per Community Edition (also referred to as “Project”, “Code”, “Software”, “Sn1per”, “Product”), provided the following terms and conditions are met:

- (1) You agree to give credit to the original author @xer0dayz and link back to <https://sn1persecurity.com> (Sn1perSecurity LLC)
- (2) You may not rename or rebrand the Project.
- (3) You agree not to create any product or service from any part of the Code from this Project, paid or free.
- (4) You agree not to re-license the Code.
- (5) You may not use the Code for illegal or nefarious purposes, which violates any laws (in your jurisdiction, the jurisdiction in which the Software is running, the jurisdiction in which the Software is targeting, and the United States of America).
- (6) You agree not to scan a target in a manner that is considered unlawful, illegal, or that you do not have explicit permission to do so.

This Software is provided as-is without warranty. Sn1perSecurity LLC, its creators and staff take no liability for consequential damages to the maximum extent permitted by all applicable laws. In no event shall Sn1perSecurity LLC or any person be liable for any consequential, reliance, incidental, special, direct or indirect damages whatsoever (including without limitation, damages for loss of business profits, business interruption, loss of business information, personal injury, or any other loss) arising out of or in connection with the use or inability to use this Product, even if Sn1perSecurity LLC has been advised of the possibility of such damages.

Sn1perSecurity LLC does not guarantee any functionality or performance of Sn1per Community Edition. Sn1perSecurity LLC does not warrant that the Code will be maintained and in good working order, or that the Software will meet your requirements, be uninterrupted, or error free, or that any errors in the Software will be corrected.

The Software code, name, and logos are owned by Sn1perSecurity LLC and protected by the United States of America and the state of Arizona copyright and/or patent laws of international treaty provisions. All rights reserved.

Sn1perSecurity LLC reserves the right to change the licensing terms at any time, without advance notice. Sn1perSecurity LLC reserves the right to terminate your license at any time.

If any provision of this EULA is determined to be unlawful, void, or unenforceable, such provision shall nonetheless be enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, and the unenforceable portion shall be deemed to be severed from this EULA. Such determination shall not affect the validity and enforceability of any remaining provisions.

Failure of Sn1perSecurity LLC to exercise or enforce any right or provision of this EULA does not constitute a waiver of such right or provision.

Any ambiguities in the interpretation of this EULA shall not be construed against the drafting party/parties.

Download, use, distribution (in part or in whole) of this Project/Code constitutes your acceptance of the Sn1per Community Edition EULA. If at any time you are not in agreement or cannot meet any part of this EULA, you should immediately cease use of the Project by removing/uninstalling all copies from all locations.
